What to expect...

Our camp has been designed with one central focus: Help young women learn how to become better basketball players and enjoy themselves in the process. It is our feeling that by learning the basic fundamentals at an early stage in their basketball lives, young student athletes will achieve more success.

Participants can expect to receive an in-depth amount of individual learning along with plenty of team activity. Throw in a variety of contests and daily awards as well as the opportunity to meet new friends, and you have an atmosphere of positive learning and fun.

Our staff will strive to promote values such as good sportsmanship, respect, and hard work because all these qualities not only make us better basketball players, but better people.
