Real Maryland will host the Rochester Rhinos in a pre-season exhibition game at Richard Montgomery High School's Lester Stadium on Sunday, April 5th at 1pm.

The Rhinos, who compete in the United Soccer Leagues First Division, have prided themselves on upholding a high level of play over their twelve plus year history. The team has never missed the playoffs, reaching the championship game six times (1996, 1998–2001, 2006). The Rhinos have been league champions three times, in 1998, 2000, 2001. They also won the U.S. Open Cup in 1999, becoming the only non-Major League Soccer team to win the cup since MLS began play in 1996.

The game will be played at home of Real Maryland FC, the Richard Montgomery High School at 1pm on Sunday, April 5th.
